Youth's Responsibility During the Centennial

The year 1960 is a very important milestone in the history of our denomination. Be it said to the credit of our youth that they are vitally interested in benefiting from re-orientation on this occasion. Permit me to offer a few words of advice to help you young people receive the greatest benefit from this occasion.

Youth, be wise! Order your lives by the highest ideals, but withhold public criticism of the church. Mistakes were made in the past, but it is not becoming for youth to dwell on these. That is the privilege of the older generation who were engaged in the strife, and who shared the responsibility for existing conditions. Be observant! Learn by the experiences of others!

Youth, join with the church in giving praise and honor to God for the many blessings He bestowed during the past century! Among other issues, the M.B. Church was permitted to bring back into focus the experiential side of Christianity, regeneration, assurance of salvation, the living presence of Christ in the heart of the believer, and the significance of prayer. In addition to that may I call attention to the sound biblicism that prevailed, to the exercising of church discipline, to the manifest determination of keeping the church in readiness for the coming of the Lord. Join us in expressing our heartfelt gratitude and praise to God for these benefits.

Youth, do not accept your doctrinal statements upon the strength of the church's authority, but, by diligent deliberation and study of Scripture strive to re-discover their soundness. Only through forming a personal conviction can you be established.

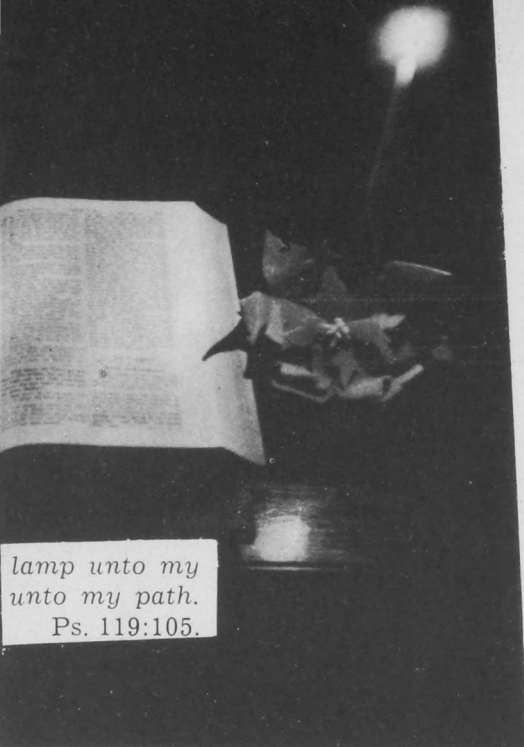

Youth, endeavor to discover the ideal Mennonite Brethren personality, the kind of person the member of your church knows he ought to be according to Scripture! What changes has our ideal undergone, and to what extent does our life reflect our ideal? Unless you keep this ideal before your mental eye, you will soon find yourself accepting for your own the standards of fellow church-members. Therefore discover the ideal, cultivate it, and live up to it to the best of your ability.

Youth, acquaint yourself with the reputation your church enjoyed in the past. Find out what impact the M.B. Church has had upon society in the past decades, and decide whether it can afford to continue in the present trend. See to what extent the church has lived up to the admonition of Paul, "Walk in wisdom toward them that are without." Col. 4:5.

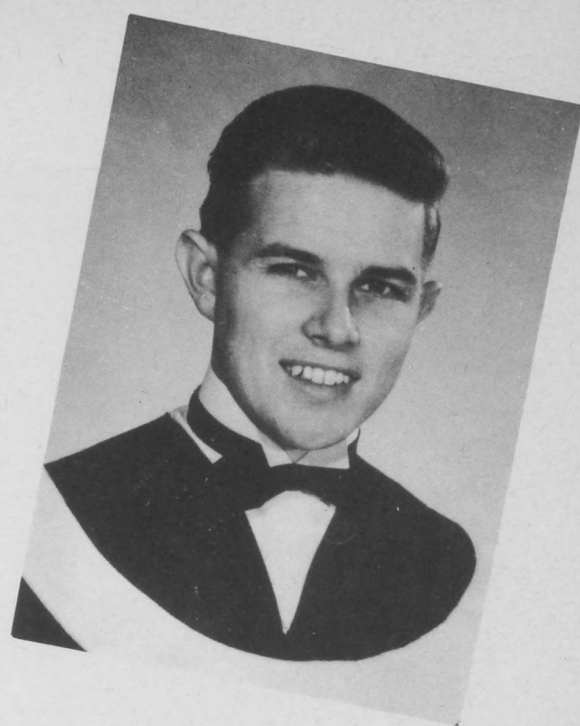

Youth of our church, participate in the commemoration of the Church's anniversary with open eyes, with a heart full of love toward the brethren, and with a mind determined to guide our church according to God's Word, when, by God's appointment, you should be called to the helm of the ship.

Hold High the Torch

In his poem "Flanders Fields", John McCrae has given us a challenge which could be aptly applied to us as M.B. Youth in our centennial year.

*"Take up the quarrel with the foe,
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; Be yours to hold it high."*

This is also the voice of our fathers, who have heroically carried the torch for the past one hundred years. This torch was their unshakeable faith in Christ and the Word of God, and their exemplary life according to the principles laid down in Scripture.

In this year, 1960, we as youth must reorientate ourselves regarding our stand to the brotherhood and to the cause for which they lived and died. Before we glibly accept the torch from them, let us seriously consider what it symbolized.

To our forefathers, it was first of all, A Torch of Separation. The founders of the M.B. Church believed and acted upon the words of Paul in II Cor. 6:17 — "Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." Today we have become so integrated in modern society that we have lost, to a great extent, the significance of the Biblical teaching regarding separation. In our day, we as Christian young people have a definite role to play "in the world" as witnesses, but we must not be "of the world" in our outlook, our aspirations and motivations. Those outside of Christ will only be drawn to Him when they perceive that "we have been with Jesus."

It was also A Torch of Sacrifice for many in our brotherhood. Christ said we must be willing to leave home, friends, loved ones, yes, all that we have, in order to be his disciples. (Luke 14:33). Many brethren in the faith have had to suffer for the sake of the gospel and the church. We are living in days of prosperity and freedom and have yet to learn to sacrifice for the Kingdom of God. Let us consider it a privilege, not a privation, to give our time, our talents and our tithes to spread the faith of our fathers at home and abroad.

Lastly, it constituted for them A Torch of Service for God and their fellowmen. The principle of love motivated our early brethren to witness to their ungodly neighbours in word and deed. This witness has been extended by our conference to the far-flung corners of the globe. The opportunities for service in our day are unlimited. Our churches need dedicated workers in every phase of educational and evangelistic endeavour. The world is desperately in need of consecrated young people who proclaim a message of hope and who serve others "in the name of Christ".

Are we ready to "hold high the torch" and to carry it forward in our generation? We can only do so as we submit ourselves to our Master, Christ himself, who inspired and guided our fathers in the past.

C. Alfred Friesen.

Am 6 Januar, 1960, schauten wir zurück auf die 100 jährige Geschichte der Mennoniten Brüder Gemeinde, auf ihren Anfang und Entwicklung. Und aus diesem Stamm erwuchs neben andern Zweigen auch unser Bibel College. Klein und senfkornartig war der Anfang dieser theologischen, denominationalen Schule unter dem Namen "Mennoniten Brüdergemeinde Bibel College". Hiermit ist ihr vierfacher Charakter bezeichnet. Als solches College hat es sich im Laufs von 16 Jahren erwiesen, treu seiner Bestimmung gegenueber.

Scharf ist es gleich am Anfang angefeindet und angefochten worden. Die ersten giftigen Pfeile waren auf den Anfänger und ersten Präsidenten, Dr. A. H. Unruh gerichtet mit der Absicht, das junge Werk zu zerstören. Doch unerschütterlich stand er und mit ihm die Behörde fest und wichen nicht von unserm Plan und Ziel. So sind bis heute die Grundsätze und Bestimmungen der Kanadischen Konferenz die Richtlinien für die Handlungen der Behörde gewesen. Wir sind noch auf dem Wege zum Ziel, nämlich unserer gläubigen Jugend eine gründliche, fundamentale, theologische Bildung zur Ausrüstung für den mannigfachen Dienst im Reiche Gottes zu geben.

Daher bedarf es noch eines erweiterten Lehrprogramms auf Grund des B.Th. Kursus zur Abrundung ihrer theologischen Bildung. Und so ist unser Streben auf dieses Ziel gerichtet. Der Herr hat es so geführt, dass wir die dazu gehorenden Raumllichkeiten, wie auch eine qualifizierte Fakultat haben.

Der Herr hat Groses an uns getan und wird noch Grösseres tun!

The Call To Discipleship

Follow Thou Me!

(John 21:22)

In these words of Christ to Peter we have the Master's final call to unconditional discipleship. This challenge constitutes a concentration into one burning utterance of all that is meant by the Christian life. It would appear that the Lord gathered all the rules of conduct which were involved in his previous discourses into one word, when he laid upon the man who should be a fisher of men and a shepherd of the flock the comprehensive duty: Follow thou me! Our Lord's wonderful instruction and training of his students finds its consummation and culmination in this call to unreserved obedience and discipleship.

This word of our Master we would like to leave with you, dear students, as you leave the halls of our College for the various fields of service at home or abroad. But this is also the challenge that comes to us as a brotherhood in this centennial year of our history. At the time of the founding of our Church there was a wholehearted response to the Saviour's call to discipleship. Now, after one hundred years of growth and expansion, we again hear the Master's call. "You must keep on following me." (Williams Translation).

What are the implications of this call to unconditional discipleship? According to the context, in which these words were spoken, it means to follow Christ regardless of consequences. Our Lord makes it very clear that discipleship implies the surrender of personal freedom and even the sacrifice of life. Dietrich Bonhoeffer had grasped this great truth of the cost of discipleship. Years before his martyrdom he wrote: "When Christ calls a man, he bids him come and die." But this call also implies following Christ regardless of the prerogatives of others. We are all inclined to ask with Peter, "Lord, and what shall this man do?" when we observe the privileged position and pathway of fellow-disciples. The Lord's answer is simple and final: Follow thou me!

Our College is dedicated to the task of training Christian young people for service through discipleship. The call to service is a call to preparation. Through the medium of this yearbook the students and staff of the College extend to you a cordial invitation to either join our ranks for training in discipleship or to share with us the spiritual as well as the material burdens of this ministry.

Teach Me The Truth

Teach me the truth, Lord, though it put to flight
My cherished dreams and fondest fancy's play;
Give me to know the darkness from the light,
The night from day.

Teach me the truth, Lord, though my heart may break
In casting out the falsehood for the true;
Help me to take my shattered life and make
Its actions new.

Teach me the truth, Lord, though my feet may fear
The rocky path that opens out to me;
Rough it may be, but let the way be clear
That leads to Thee.

Teach me the truth, Lord. When false creeds decay,
When man-made dogmas vanish with the night,
Then, Lord, on Thee my darkened soul shall stay,
Thou living Light.

DAVE NICKEL, Th. B.

"I being in the way, the Lord led me." God's way for me, also through college, has been interesting, sobering and rewarding. I have learned that by the grace of God we can be kept in His way. "Only one life, 'twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last."

JOYCE REDEKOP, S.M.C.
St. Catharines, Ont.

My studies at Bible College have given me a new conception of disciplinship. Christ must transform every area of our lives; our beliefs must pervade our entire personality. I have also realized the great possibilities of serving God through music, and have gained a new appreciation for our Christian hymnody.

LEN SCHROEDER, B. R. E.

An honest study of God's Word reveals the unworthiness of self and the supremacy of Christ.

But Christ that lives in me."

LOUISE REGEHR, Th. B.
Wymark, Sask.

During the study of God's Word, two truths have become significant to me. They are found in Psalm 18: 30. "As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried" and in I Corinthians 10: 31, "Whatever you do, do all to the glory of God."

"If any man will come after me let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." Luke 9:23.

These words of Christ reveal the inseparability of discipleship and salvation. Basically, discipleship has reverence to following Christ, (Nachfolge), and the application of his teachings to our everyday life. Thus in a practical way the disciple emphasizes the Biblical principles of love, cross-bearing and holiness of life. The total result is the subordination of the will and life to Christ and his great commission.

The principle of discipleship is an integral part of the emphasis in M.B.B.C. As Student Council we have throughout this year dedicated ourselves to the furtherance of this spirit within the student body. We have realized our utter dependence upon the Lord and in his strength we have sought to carry out the responsibilities entrusted to us, by promoting a student program which would further the physical and spiritual welfare of the students and bring honour to Christ.

Thus we have sponsored Student Night programs, recreational activities and provided opportunities for the expression and development of musical and literary talent. Another important aim was to establish interest in missions at home and abroad. Prayer groups were organized to achieve this purpose, and practical work provided an outlet. Above all, participation in prayer and testimony meetings was encouraged for the personal spiritual development of every student.

As Student Council we are thankful for the opportunity which we have had to serve the students of M.B.B.C. We trust that in a measure our determination to glorify Christ has been realized.

Foreign Missions

The purpose of our committee is to promote interest in foreign missions among the students through prayer and publicity.

Our major emphasis is prayer. Every Monday afternoon petitions from nine different student prayer groups rise up to God in behalf of missions. To guide us in our prayers and acquaint us with the fields, reports on the various mission efforts are given by the students, and correspondence with missionaries is carried on. A Prayer Meeting Co-ordinator was introduced this year to visit and advise the separate groups, thus encouraging a more effective prayer ministry.

The missionary cause is publicized through literature distribution, the Foreign Missions Blackboard, and a regular column in the "College Companion". The regular use of the "Prayer Guide" of the M.B. Board of Foreign Missions and the "Missionary Mandate", published by the I.V.C.F., are encouraged to help us remember foreign missions in our private prayers.

One of the highlights of the school year is the missionary conference, at which time we participate by setting up an informative display and providing the Student Night program. At this time the students also contribute to a special missionary offering.

This year we have been especially fortunate in having several missionaries studying at our school. They have certainly contributed to our knowledge and understanding of the mission work. They have made missions more real to us.

Our prayer and aim is expressed by the Psalmist: "That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving power among all nations." (Ps. 67: 2).

The objectives of our practical work have been attempts at entering further into true discipleship. In our classes and chapel periods we have enjoyed delightful fellowship with our Master. He has exhorted us to go and prove our faith by our works. Refreshed and encouraged we went by two's and in larger groups. Silver and gold had we none but such as we had we gave them. Our desire has been that Christ's words of Matt. 25: 35 and Matt. 19: 14 would be realized through our efforts.

"I was an hungered and ye gave me meat." At Union Gospel a cup of coffee and a doughnut help to ease physical hunger. Oh that the singing and personal work might satisfy the hunger of the soul!

"Naked and ye clothed me." Through our Christmas Cheer, clothes were distributed to needy families. Our motive, that they might "put on Christ".

"I was sick and ye visited me". Three hospitals and the Blind Folks' Home have been visited by singing groups. The message of healing and light has really touched some hearts.

"I was in prison and ye visited me." The modern malefactor must also hear that he too can enter paradise.

"Suffer little children to come unto me." The major part of our work has been with children. Through the Gospel Light and Jewish Hobby Clubs, six Good News Clubs, the Union Gospel and Gospel Light Sunday Schools, Religious Education in four classrooms and the efforts of twenty-eight Sunday teachers and youth workers in our churches, we have tried to "win for the Lamb that was slain, a reward for his sufferings." We join in the angels' rejoicing over those that were lost but have been found. We thank God for this privilege and His support. The enthusiasm of the students, the guidance of Rev. J. J. Toews and the co-operation and assistance of the Manitoba Home Mission have truly been appreciated. May our discipleship and Christ's glorious Kingdom have been expanded through our efforts.

The purpose of the Music Committee is to provide singing groups for the various occasions and to foster a higher calibre of singing in our school. Col. 3: 24 "... for ye serve the Lord Christ" was chosen as a motto to guide us in this work.

The activities in the music department have become events of the past, but in reminiscing we are quick to speak of the many times we experienced God through the medium of song. We are thankful not only for personal benefits received, but that we could avail ourselves of this opportunity of serving our Master. Rural and urban churches, missions, Old Folks Homes, Union Gospel, the Institute for the Blind, Gospel Light Chapel, as well as our College, have greatly benefited through the service of our many singing groups. We specially thank the four trios, the three quartets, the octettes, plus the many other smaller ensembles, for their devoted service.

The performances of Mendelssohn's dramatic oratorio, "The Elijah" and Bach's "Passion according to St. John," proved to be times of spiritual enrichment. Conducting the one hundred and thirty voice Oratorio Choir for the above mentioned works was a special challenge and joy for Mr. Martens, to whom we as singers offer our sincere appreciation. The thirty voice A Cappella Choir prepared a repertoire of songs for the Christmas Carol program, the missionary conference and the Alberta-Saskatchewan tour. Of great value to the choir was the singing of Bach's Motet, "Singet dem Herrn ein neues Lied."

We have become more thankful to God for the medium of song, through which we can praise him. Let us endeavor to improve this faculty of expression by more earnest consideration of the same.

—Bill Baerg

To those of us who have attended this school, mention of the word "College" will recall a host of pleasant memories. It will remind us of hours of interesting study, periods of testing and soul-searching, as well as moments of rich blessing through fellowship. To some other member of our brotherhood, this same word might mean little more than burdensome church dues, a place of unnecessary intellectual and emotional calisthenics, perhaps even a social haven for restless youth. Why this disparity of views among its own members when the conference has deemed this institution essential in achieving its goal?

No doubt this difference of opinion is due, in no small measure, to a lack of adequate communication within our brotherhood. The purpose of this yearbook is to aid in dispelling this ignorance by giving you some insight into College life.

One limitation of our annual is that it must restrict itself to people, walls, faces and feeble descriptions, while the essence of College life are the decisions, blessings and spiritual experiences transpiring in the hearts of individuals. We trust that our students will reflect the reality of the latter in their daily life. Meanwhile, if this annual helps to promote a spirit of unity and discipleship in our conference, the arduous hours of labour spent in producing it will be considered worth while.

Medical Aid

"Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ." (Gal. 6: 2). The College provides for practical expression of this truth through the Medical Aid Association. By joining it, students contribute to the welfare of each other. Membership is voluntary and the subscription fees furnish a trust fund. The aim of the association is to promote good health among the students, to provide first aid facilities, and to assist in the financial settlement of the medical expenses of its members.

Most of our afflictions have been minor. The germ affecting the great majority of students seems to have its natural habitat in the library. There, usually in the afternoons, one student after another succumbs to a peculiar form of neurosis characterized by a loss of sensibility and voluntary movements without any perceptible alteration in blood circulation, though the respiratory system may be affected. From acroagnosis, batophobia, and coryza spasmodica to xenophobia and zoophobia among the theologians and measles (plain and spotted) among the junior Ebenezerites, we have suffered as a family.

This year a first-aid room has been equipped from the trust fund. We are thankful for this though we trust that it will be used but infrequently, and then only for minor ailments.

Once more we can return thanks to God for His care in providing and maintaining a high degree of physical and mental health among us during the College year.

—Gerry Seymour

The need for relaxation and recreation prevails also in such a sedentary occupation as studying, not only with the Greek scholars, as might be expected, but even with the conducting students.

The Recreation Committee is in charge of encouraging participation in sports and organizing several socials during the year. Sports facilities of our college have been somewhat limited, but the recent opening of the spacious new High School auditorium next door to our school should help to alleviate these limitations. Good participation is shown in volley-ball and table tennis, and considerable interest is taken in skating, hockey and basketball.

Socials, such as the "get acquainted evening", the broom-ball social, and the annual outdoor picnic, are generally enjoyed by all. Of perhaps even greater interest are the interchange visits with our sister college, C.M.B.C., in Tuxedo.

We believe that a recreation program plays an important part in our school life, for our bodies as well as our minds must receive exercise in order that they function efficiently. A healthy mind should dwell in a healthy well-exercised body. In all activities we strive to live up to our Motto: "and whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him." Colossians 3: 17.

—Alvin Enns

Student life is not comprised solely of studies and practical work. There are other areas in which student life seeks expression according to individual interests. One of these areas is the literary field.

The first duty of the literary promoter was to hand-pick a well qualified, yet diversified committee. Good success in this gave enthusiasm to tackle the preparation of the year's first issue of the student paper "The Companion." After considerable head scratching the plan was ready and students were requested to write the articles. Most everyone felt totally unqualified, yet after an apologetic smile replied, "we'll try our best." This was another incentive. For the sake of efficiency the work was divided among the committee members. Weekly committee meetings unveiled past mistakes and worthy suggestions. Why all this effort?—to stimulate educational and creative expression of student opinion and conviction.

Other obligations were placed upon the Committee. A panel on "Tithing in the light of Christian Stewardship," for the Manitoba Youth Conference was requested. A debate was planned: resolved that the abolition of capital punishment would be beneficial to our society. The purpose—to facilitate the growth of student interest and development in areas not regularly provided for by the curriculum.

Plans were also made for a public speaking contest, for a drama and for the showing of several films, in order to whet the students' appetites for literary artistry.

All in all, the work was enjoyable and educational. Thanks to the cheerful and willing co-operation of the committee, the many compliments and suggestions, and last but not least, the close scrutiny and encouraging aid of our advisor, Mr. Giesbrecht. (May the entire effort have been a means of aiding the development of true disciples of Jesus Christ).

The "Nonsuch" Carried The First Cargo Of Furs To London

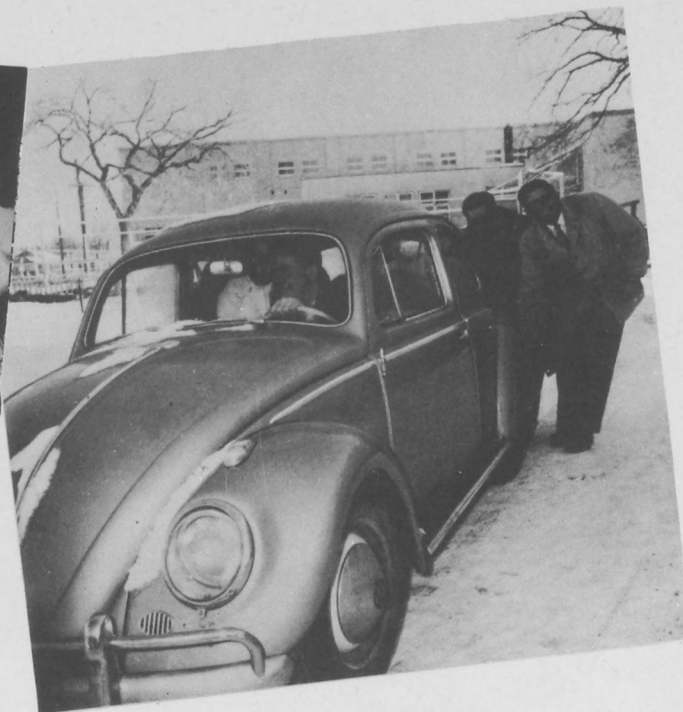

In 1668 the Nonsuch, a fifty ton ketch sailed from London to Hudson Bay carrying a cargo of trade goods. The fate of the Hudson's Bay Company, and indeed, of western and northern Canada depended on the success of her voyage, for Groseilliers and Radisson had described to King Charles the wealth of furs found in the New World, but the existence and accessibility of this wealth had to be established. The valuable returning cargo was hailed with joy and the company of court Gallants who backed the adventure was incorporated, on May 2nd. 1670, as "The Governor and Company of Adventurers of England trading into Hudson Bay."
